

Cycling link to boost tourism

by Stuart Broom

DORCHESTER and Weymouth will get to share in a massive new cycle project to encourage cycling tourism in France and South-West England with the creation of three new routes taking in destinations on both sides of the Channel.

Businesses are being encouraged to brush up on their French in preparation for thousands of two-wheeled tourists coming to our shores following the announcement of a £7.6m million initiative, which will boost green tourism with both towns, particularly Dorchester, set to benefit.

Not only will it boost tourist attractions, it is expected to stimulate opportunities for bed and breakfast establishments, cafes, camp sites, pubs and shops.

There will also be new business opportunities in markets for cycle hire, cycling holidays, guided rides and baggage services, which it is hoped the project will stimulate.

"Cycle West" has secured European funding to develop and promote cycle tourism for the ever-growing international army of "visitors on wheels" with some 1,100 miles of new and enjoyable cycling routes, which will take in some of the most beautiful countryside and outstanding attractions in South-West England, Normandy and Brittany.

At the launch in London last week, project leaders reported on the progress to date and set out their vision for a future, and the Channel will present no obstacle to the routes in either country as ferry transport including in and out of Weymouth will enable cyclists to continue on the other side.

The 17 French and English partners behind the project (which includes Dorset County Council and Weymouth & Portland Borough Council) believe the end result will be a huge boost to tourism – not only from overseas visitors but also from within their own countries.

Dorset features prominently in two of the three new routes.

The "Tour de Manche" is a 600 mile loop between Roscoff, Mont Saint Michel, Cherbourg, Poole, Dorchester, Torbay, Plymouth and back to Roscoff. It hugs the coastline on both sides of the English Channel, and passes though some sites of exceptional natural interest including the Jurassic coast.

The shorter "Petit Tour de Manche" is 240 miles long; a circular route between St Malo, Mont Saint Michel, Cherbourg, Poole, Dorchester, Weymouth, Jersey and back to St Malo.

Adam Bows of Dorset County Council is leading the three-year project within the county, using the European funding to oversee £270,000 worth of improvements to existing cycle routes, completing missing links and installing cycle parking at key attractions.

"This is a good opportunity for the county to diversify and appeal to holidaymakers that don't necessarily want a 'bucket and spade' holiday or a quiet weekend in the country," he said.

"We have miles of routes on quiet roads, bridleways and traffic free routes that really allow you to explore the beauty of our local countryside and coastline – some of which has World Heritage status."

Weymouth and Portland Borough Councillor Andy Blackwood, Briefholder for Leisure and Tourism said: "The whole nature of tourism is changing and this is a fantastic chance for us to broaden our offer to appeal to the many people who want to have an adventure or a new experience on their holidays."

JULIA O'Kelly has lived in Lyme Regis for more than 30 years after previously living in Harcombe.

Ever since she moved to the town with her husband and two sons she has been a very involved with the community.

She has a very musical background, as her mother was a professional musician and many members of her family have performed in orchestras and choirs.

Julia is also a keen musician and has performed in many musical groups and she even formed a choir of her own.

Julia has also been involved with The Woodroffe School where she has been a governor for a number of years.

■ WHAT do you like and dislike about Lyme Regis?

I love the situation and the scenery. It's all so peaceful and almost otherworldly. Except in the holidays when it can sometimes be frustrating not being able to find a parking space or cross the road when it is busy. But you have to remind yourself that we have this beautiful place to live all year round, and it's only fair that we have to share it. The only thing I dislike about Lyme is the inconvenience of it. But of course if it weren't so isolated, it wouldn't be as peaceful as it is.

■ WHAT are the biggest changes you have seen in the area?

The biggest change since I first moved here would probably be the coastal protection scheme. When I moved here the main beach had breakwaters going down, and it wasn't as clean looking as it is now. So on the whole that has been a big improvement.

■ WHAT is your favourite kind of music?

I love most music really, but I particularly love choral music. When I was younger I conducted my school choir, from there I went on to perform with many other choirs throughout my life. But I also enjoy a bit of medieval and modern jazz, it depends on my mood really.

■ WHAT does your own music group involve?

We have met every last Thursday of every month, for the past 30 years. We are simply a group of friends who meet round my kitchen table and sing for fun. We mostly sing a cappella, but we also sing folk songs, spirituals and some motets. We sing whatever choral work possible. We are not a performing choir, however, I am also involved in a performing choral society.

■ DO you ever go and meet with other similar groups?

Yes, quite often. We have been on fellowship holidays, in which walking and singing is combined. We take part in visiting lovely hotels up and down the country with other singers and groups like us. It is normally a professional who leads the singing, and it is a nice break to enjoy myself and let somebody else be the boss.

60 SECOND INTERVIEW

■ DO you think there are many opportunities locally to go and watch live music?

There is more than I would have first expected. For example, there are lunchtime performances in Axminster, some of which are wonderful, there is also a Somerset choir, and concerts in Bridport. If you really watch the newspapers, there really is a lot going on.

■ IF you could meet any famous musician who would it be?

That's a very good question. It would have to be Bach, he is my favourite composer of choral music. He composed many works on the piano, but the finest in my opinion is the St Matthew passion.

■ OTHER than music, do you have any other hobbies or interests?

Well, I am just dotty about animals. I owned a horse for 12 years and that was possibly the happiest period of my life. I've always had dogs, I sometimes look after my neighbour's chickens and I also have gold fish.

■ WHAT is your involvement with The Woodroffe School?

I have been very much involved over the years. I started out as being a member of the PTA and I later went on to be secretary of the PTA. Then somebody suggested I put myself up for governor, which I found hilarious at the time. But I did, and was voted Governor twice by the parents of Woodroffe. That is something I am very proud of. I very much enjoyed being involved in the school and have a great amount of admiration for the staff. However, in all my years at Woodroffe, I never understood how 800 students managed to move around at the bell and not bump into one another.

Dementia roadshow service launched

■ ACTOR John Altman and members of Dorchester Tesco's staff launch the new roadshow

THE first ever Dementia Community Roadshow was launched in Dorchester last week to help carry information and advice about the condition, which is estimated to affect 69,000 people in the South West.

Run in conjunction with Tesco, for whom the Alzheimers Society and Alzheimer Scotland are their charity of the year, the roadshow aims to reach 100,000 people over three years when it will visit Tesco car parks across the UK spending two days at every store it visits.

Actor John Altman, a passionate Alzheimer's Society supporter, was in attendance to launch England's first ever roadshow at Dorchester's Tesco store.

Dorset has the worst rates of diagnosis and three quarters (75 per cent) of people living with dementia do not have a diagnosis compared to a national average of 60 per cent.

A formal diagnosis is vital for people with dementia so they can access drugs, support and advice to enable them to live well with the condition.

It is hoped the exhibition will help raise awareness, provide vital information and advice on dementia, direct people to essential local services and help bring people concerned about their memory one step closer to achieving a diagnosis.

John Altman, familiar to many as EastEnders villain nasty Nick Cotton, said: "My father had dementia and now a close friend has dementia with Lewy bodies, so I know what a cruel condition it is and the devastating impact it has on families. I hope this roadshow continues to lift the taboos around dementia and I'd really encourage anyone with questions about dementia to come down and find out more."

Debbie Donnison, Area Manager South West, Alzheimer's Society, said: "It's really worrying that so many with dementia in the South West don't have access to the help and support they need to live well with the condition. This partnership with Tesco will help us reach out to communities and encourage people to visit their GP."

New chairman for DFA

DORSET COUNTY councillor Rebecca Knox was named the new chairman of the Dorset Fire Authority (DFA) at their meeting at their service headquarters in Poundbury last Wednesday, where they also agreed to a proposal to relocate the control room from its current location at County Hall to Poundbury producing a net saving of £39k annually.

The new chairman will take up the reigns from Councillor Chris Bulteel, whilst new vice-chair Councillor Barry Goldbart (Bournemouth Borough Council) will succeed Councillor David Fox, and both paid tribute to the sterling work of their respective predecessors.

Rebecca said: "I am delighted to have had such support from Fire Authority members in being elected into such a key role. My predecessor, Chris Bulteel, made a real impact in his time as chairman and I hope to continue that first class work with the first class service that Dorset Fire and Rescue Service provides to our county."

Rebecca has been a member of Dorset County Council since 2009, representing the Beaminster division in West Dorset, and a Beaminster Town Councillor since 2007.

She joined the Fire Authority in July 2009. She has also held a number of key roles within both the County Council and Fire Authority, being Member Champion for Environmental Sustainability and for Equality and Diversity, as well being part of the Fire Authority Audit and Scrutiny Committee and the Budget Working Group.

Working alongside her as vice-chairman will be Councillor Barry Goldbart who was elected to the London Borough of Brent Council in 1974 and, after a permanent move to Bournemouth in 1985, was elected to Bournemouth Council in 2003. Barry joined the Fire Authority in June 2007 and was elected as Mayor of Bournemouth in May 2010.

"I am also very much looking forward to helping to support the authority through the next few years. David Fox was also a key figure for many years and his efforts both as former chairman and more recently as vice-chairman have undoubtedly gone a long way towards the authority and service being what they are today."

Chief Fire Officer, Darran Gunter said: "There is little doubt that the commitment and political leadership provided by the Dorset Fire Authority has a significant bearing on the overall performance of the service."

"I am delighted that Councillor Rebecca Knox has been appointed as chairman and Councillor Barry Goldbart as her deputy."

"I have worked with both individuals over several years and look forward to closer working in terms of their new positions. Dorset Fire and Rescue Service, like all public services faces a very uncertain future, it is therefore crucial that at this time more than ever we have leadership throughout the authority and service that is committed to improving our service and maintaining the safety of our communities."

The authority also supported a proposal to keep Dorset Fire and Rescue Service's Fire Control in Dorchester after considering a report which covered a range of options following the Government's cancellation of the regional control centre project.

Members of the authority agreed an option which would retain and develop the role of the existing Dorset Fire Control and work with neighbouring fire and rescue services to enhance operational resilience.

Off duty policewoman helps injured walker

■ PC Allen (back left) with Ann Sherriffs (in the wheelchair) and her husband Mr Alan Sherriffs, with Tracey Lloyd (back right) one of the two horse riders that also assisted Mrs Sherriffs

AN INJURED walker who was stricken in Puddletown forest has thanked the off duty police officer who came to her aid.

On the morning of Saturday, June 4th, PC Jacqui Allen – who is a response officer based in Dorchester – was enjoying a ride on her horse through Puddletown Forest when a man came running towards her and asked her to help his injured wife.

The man, Alan Sherriffs, said that his 63-year-old wife Ann had slipped on a high ridge while they were out walking their two dogs and she had badly hurt her ankle.

Mr Sherriffs used PC Allen's mobile phone to call an ambulance, but as PC Allen had a better knowledge of the forest, she spoke to the ambulance controller to explain exactly where they were located.

PC Allen stopped four cyclists that were cycling through the forest and asked them to go to the road to meet the paramedics and direct them back. Two other women riding horses appeared and were eager to help.

They rode their horses up the very steep hill that the injured Mrs Sherriffs was at the top of so they could wait with her until the paramedics arrived.

The barriers into the forest were padlocked shut so the four cyclists assisted the ambulance crew by carrying their medical equipment for approximately one mile to where Mrs Sherriffs was located.

The paramedics decided that the safest way to get Mrs Sherriffs to hospital was by air ambulance due to the difficult terrain within the forest and the distance between Mrs Sherriffs and the ambulance.

Mrs Sherriffs was taken to Dorset County Hospital by the air ambulance where it was confirmed that she had fractured her left ankle.

Mrs Sherriffs said: "I was so impressed by the care and concern shown by everybody and it was very humbling to see that people went out of their way to stop and help

"The ambulance crews were extremely professional and I cannot speak too highly of the care I received at A&E in Dorchester.

"I'd like also to thank the ladies on horseback and the mountain bikers for helping.

"Unfortunately I don't have their names but when my husband shook their hands, the mountain bikers said they had to be on their way to see if they could find somebody else to save!

"Jacqui Allen was superb and a credit to the police force. I am so grateful to everybody."

Dorchester Neighbourhood Inspector, Les Fry, said: "PC Allen delivered a really good level of service to the injured Mrs Sherriffs while she was off duty.

"PC Allen's efforts, and the efforts of everyone else that helped, were very commendable and they should all be proud of the support that they provided.

"I am glad that Mrs Sherriffs is on the mend and I wish her a swift recovery."

THE UK'S LEADING HOME IMPROVEMENT SPECIALIST

Carers enjoy par-tea in the park

THE weather could have been better, but members of Rethink went ahead with Tea in the Park as part of National Carers Week.

The Borough Gardens in Dorchester is a wonderful venue to hold events of this nature and raise awareness of a whole range of services available to all.

Rethink organised this particular event in conjunction with the Independent Carers' Forum and Co-ordinator Emma Bearpark.

by Anita Harries

This forum campaigns for a greater understanding of mental illness, supports the mental well-being of carers and their families in Dorset, fights for resources to be spent on individual care, and using their experience as carers promotes mental well-being within their families and the wider community.

Rethink is the leading mental health membership charity in the country, striving to help everyone affected by severe mental illness and other mental health problems recover a better quality of life.

The Tea in the Park event went some way to raising the profile of Rethink and the marvellous work it carries out.

As well as helping those suffering from mental illness receive a better quality of life, they believe that carers play an invaluable role in helping people recover, and that they should be acknowledged, valued and supported.

Information was available on all aspects of the work carried out by Rethink and the incredible services it provides. There was the opportunity to take part in a taster session of Reiki Healing, try your luck on the tombola, join in a card making workshop or chat to representatives from Boots the Chemist.

Much of the information available was geared towards making the life of carers easier. And you could even enjoy a complementary cup of tea and slice of cake from the Rethink kiosk.

Rethink's Julia Terry said: "It is lovely this event has been put on for carers. It helps raise the profile of mental illness and maybe remove some of the stigma surrounding it."

"We owe a tremendous vote of thanks to Emma who has put in a great deal of hard work organising Tea in the Park."

"Although we currently have funding to employ her for 15 hours a week, this is due to run out in the very near future and we are unable to find the necessary finances to keep her job secure. She fits an incredible amount of work into these 15 hours, arranging open evenings, engaging speakers, and helping put on events such as this. And because she is a carer herself, she understands what we do and why we are doing it."

"If anyone has any ideas as to how we can obtain funding to keep Emma in place please do not hesitate to call me on 01305 251709."

■ DRUMMING UP A STORM: Indian percussion drummer Bangalore Prakash teaching year eight students from St Osmunds and Dorchester Middle school's

Drumming a different kind of beat

SCHOOLS in Dorchester had a rare chance to work with high quality international world musicians when ShivaNova came to town to perform at Dorchester Arts Centre.

A cutting-edge world music company with an international reputation, ShivaNova are an ensemble of musicians from around the world, led by composer Priti Paintal, who blend urban and folk, jazz and ambient sounds with influences from Indian, African, Caribbean and Western music.

They celebrate cultural diversity through music as well as through other art-forms including storytelling, dance, visual art and projection, circus and theatre.

The talented musicians spent three days working with year eight students in Dorchester's Middle Schools where over one hundred children took part in workshops in Indian percussion, African drumming and Indian vocal harmonies.

This was the culmination of a £30,000 grant to Dorchester Arts Youth Music to enable every year eight school child to work with professional multicultural musicians.

Sharon Hayden, Artistic Director for Dorchester ARTS said: "We are delighted to have received funding from West Dorset District Council to support this work.

"It's a fantastic opportunity for our school students to work directly with these leading musicians from India, Africa and Europe."

As a result of the workshops some 25 students took part with Shiva Nova in their concert last Friday.

Summer theatre school

PREPARATIONS are well under way for Dorchester Youth Theatre's Combined Arts Week (CAW) 2011, a week of drama, music, song and dance.

Last year 39 young people took part in the performances.

Starting on Monday, August 22nd through to Saturday, August 27th, initial rehearsals will take place at Dorchester Arts Centre before the final performances to the public will take place at The Thomas Hardy School on the Friday evening and Saturday afternoon.

Led by professional theatre directors and musicians, Peter Thorogood and Julian Barnicoat, the artistic team will also involve youth theatre leaders from Dorchester Youth Theatre, professional actress and Dorchester Youth Theatre's Director, Jo Simons and local actor Tom Prior, who has recently secured a place RADA, the UK's most prestigious drama school.

CAW encourages young people to try out different skills and develop their confidence and make new friends.

CAW has places for 40 young people, and places are booking quickly as it is a very popular event.

Cost per person is £100 for the week with half price for siblings.

Participants need to attend all week (Mon – Sat)

from 9.30 to 5pm, and also on Friday evening.

Masculine makeover

VISITORS to The Keep Military Museum in Dorchester were surprised to see what looked like a beauty parlour between the hundreds of war-time exhibits on show.

Colin Parr, Curator of the Keep Military Museum said: "We like to show off our collection of uniforms and some time ago we purchased some mannequins from the internet.

"Ever since they've been on show we've been thinking that the poor blokes looked a bit too feminine.

"The solution was to give them a bit of a macho make-over.

"And local make-up artist Sian Stone took up the challenge."

The Keep Military Museum is located on Bridport Road in Dorchester and is open from 9.30am-5pm Monday - Saturday. For more information go to www.keepmilitarymuseum.org.

Happy birthday!

SGMHAIR in Dorchester has celebrated its first year of successful business, despite opening in the middle of the recession.

The company is owned by Stuart Montgomerie – a hairdresser of nearly 30 years.

Stuart began his career as a Saturday boy in the trendy 80s hairdressers Mirror Mirror. As a 22-year-old he went on to run The Hair Company in Dorchester and, in 1995, decided to leave for sunny Australia with his wife Michelle.

When it was time to return to the UK, Stuart was keen to start his own business.

Sgmhair in South Street, Dorchester, was opened in June 2010. Stuart said: "Like everything it was a question of timing.

"I felt that, at the time, there was room for another hairdresser in Dorchester and I knew that my experience would give me a great advantage.

"My main aim was to be exclusive but not to exclude, that's reflected both in our prices and the service you get when you come to Sgmhair."

Stuart's team includes three talented young hairdressers Stevie, Louise and Jodie and he hopes to expand Sgmhair in the near future.

"I'm really pleased with the team I have here, the atmosphere is great, it sounds corny but it really is a pleasure to come to work and I think the customers appreciate that as much as we do," said Stuart.

Band and orchestra join forces for Corn Exchange concert

THE first ever joint concert held by the Durnovaria Silver Band and the Dorchester Middle Schools' Orchestra took place in the county town's Corn Exchange, and played to a packed audience.

The band have now been in existence for over 75 years, in comparison to the orchestra who came together only a year ago, and it was wonderful to see the youngsters have the opportunity to play with some semi-professionals.

And the combination of youth coupled with experience created an evening of excellent entertainment.

Compered by Dr Keith Barnard-Jones, who introduced each piece with a mix of amusing quips and interesting trivia, the Concert of Film Music led the audience on a journey through the sounds of the movies.

There was something for everyone, covering such favourites as The Lion King, The Jungle Book, Raiders of the Lost Ark, Calamity Jane and Pirates of the Caribbean.

With combined efforts and individual performances very much the order of the evening, we are truly fortunate in the vast array of talented musicians amongst the children of Dorchester.

Renowned baritone Jonathan Pugsley joined young Hannah Corfield for a delightful rendition of both the Bare Necessities and I Wanna Be Like You.

The percussion playing Alexander Henshaw was superb. In fact every child who took part deserves a mention for the standard of their playing and their professionalism.

More than ably backed up by the Durnovaria Silver Band, this was a concert one hopes may be repeated in the future.

And the whole thing was held together by two excellent conductors – Elizabeth Carter, musical director of the band, and Johanna Wolff, who is the orchestra's musical director.

The interval saw a few words from John Burroughs a celebrated music promoter who has worked with such musical legends as Ella Fitzgerald. John is passionate about music and stressed the importance of music in education, encouraging the youngsters to continue on their chosen path.

"This evening has been a wonderful fusion of brass band and classical music and the enthusiasm of the youngsters has been truly heartening to behold."

The Durnovaria Silver Band are champions of the young musician.

The proceeds from the evening will go towards giving disadvantaged children the opportunity to have their own instrument and receive lessons so they, too, can have the chance to appear with a band or an orchestra and maybe realise a potential they never knew they had.

DORSET'S own award winning Ace Energy are the leading suppliers of solar power. Recently they have installed solar at a number of homes within Dorchester. With the average electricity bill being around £600 yearly, installing solar on your roof can reduce that bill by up to 50% and provide home owners and landlords with a healthy profit. This is due to the Feed-In Tariff scheme which pays premium rates for power generated from solar power - Dorset households on the scheme are now earning over £850 every year. The tax free, inflation-proof payouts are designed to protect the UK from ever-rising energy prices and help lower carbon emissions. You may have noticed an increase in the amount of roofs proudly showing off their solar panels recently and according to Alan Seviour, Ace Energy's MD, solar has never been more popular.

With interest rates at an all time low investment savvy householders are looking for alternative ways to earn money and solar power offers just that.

Maumbury Rings hosts Red Cross centenary

THE Dorset Red Cross was formed in March 1911 to train Voluntary Aid Detachments to support the Territorial Medical Service.

World War I was still three years away but some already feared its inevitability. It would not be long before wounded men would be coming home, and the new branch set up reception stations, hospitals and convalescent homes.

One hundred years later, the Dorset Red Cross celebrated its centenary in Maumbury Rings, Dorchester, and invited the people of the county town to join the party.

Following a vociferous welcome and appropriate ode from Town Crier Alistair Chisholm, the event was officially opened by the Lord Lieutenant of Dorset, Mrs Valerie Pitt-Rivers who has her own family connections to the Dorset Red Cross.

"Today is an excellent opportunity to find out more about the Red Cross in Dorset and the tremendous work it does," she said.

Throughout the afternoon there were displays of Every Day First Aid and Casualty Simulation. There was advice on the Medical Equipment Service and the many ways it can assist people who need help in their every day lives, as well as information from the tracing service that utilises its skills to bring families together following conflict, disaster and migration.

There were ambulances, cars, vans and buses, all serving the Red Cross in a variety of ways, as well as some very elegant ladies in uniforms both old and new.

And many of the Red Cross volunteers, who put in many hours of hard work and are dedicated to the roles they play, were on hand to chat to members of the public and give advice on the many aspects of the Red Cross. An interesting information sheet gave details of other events of note that occurred in 1911.

Visitors were kept fuelled by an excellent barbecue and lubricated with tea, coffee and cold drinks.

A bouncy castle and circus skills kept the children occupied, whilst musical interludes were provided by the Dinnerladies, the Harmonious Funk Choir, and Brass Tacks. And the superb GwellC dance group from Weymouth performed an amazing piece entitled Force.

Depicting the armed forces and global conflict it was brilliantly choreographed. It was evident why this bunch of 15 to 18-year-olds won the Best of Dorset Street Dance Competition. Free runners and gymnasts were also due to take part.

Things have moved on since its conception in 1911. The Dorset Red Cross is now firmly ensconced in its new premises on Poundbury, having outgrown its former home in Acland Road.

And it will continue to grow and continue to reach out when and where it is needed, providing help and comfort in times of distress.

Couple stage new exhibition at Dorchester restaurant

■ ARTISTS Amin Hermann and Barbara Kranefeld with No 6 Proprietor Christian Lohez

SEVEN months ago Barbara Kranefeld and Armin Hermann moved to Dorchester from their native Germany.

And already these incredibly talented artists are having an impact on the local arts scene.

A superb exhibition of their work opened recently at the No 6 Restaurant in the county town, beautifully enhanced by its surroundings.

Indeed this contemporary restaurant with its friendly atmosphere and tasteful décor could have been created especially to make the most of the oil paintings on display.

Proprietor and French chef extraordinaire, Christian Lohez, and his wife Sylvia, use only locally sourced food, serving up meat, fish and seafood dishes which perfectly complement the paintings now hanging on their walls.

Barbara and her husband Armin are equally talented, but each has their own distinctive style.

Barbara specialises in large oil paintings, mainly of flowers, nudes and abstract art.

She describes her technique as being characterised by a "soft and seamless painting of many layers which leads to a certain harmony of colour and form. Sometimes this harmony is deceiving because on closer inspection you discover some optical illusions."

Flowers form the basis of Barbara's exhibits at No 6, full of flair and vibrancy. Poppies, tulips, and purple lilies join palm trees and bamboo plants to create an oasis of colour, both blending and contrasting with this lovely venue.

Armin has fallen in love with the Dorset landscape, and this passion is reflected in his work. His stunning views include Corfe Castle, Durdle Door, Golds Hill and Poole Harbour.

A piece very appropriately called 'Competition' is a reflection on the 2012 Olympics and the sailing events to be held at Weymouth and Portland, whilst 'L'art de la cuisine' is a thank you to No 6 for holding the exhibition.

And his technique? Amin calls it "deconstruction." To learn more, please visit Barbara and Amin's website www.where-the-art-is.eu where all will become clear.

So if you fancy some good food and the opportunity to soak up some superb artwork call in at No 6 where you can enjoy both at the same time, dining amongst the beauty of nature and countless scenes of our picturesque county.

Germany's loss is our gain, and this couple are already creating quite a stir in the town.

Skatejam reaches new heights

By Anita Harries

HUNDREDS packed the skate park in Dorchester for this year's Skatejam as the event finally went ahead following an earlier cancellation due to bad weather.

Skateboards, BMX bikes, scooters and inline skates all took to the ramps to provide at times breathtaking feats as riders launched themselves into mid-air to provide onlookers with an incredible display of tricks and somersaults.

Professionals joined amateurs to create an atmosphere of mutual respect and daring deeds as the Mayor of Dorchester, Councillor Tess James, went along to witness first hand the success of Dorchester's state of the art skatepark.

Organised by the skatepark committee, with support from Dorchester Town Council, Community Development Officer Emma Scott and West Dorset District Council, the event was equally well supported by local businesses who put up all the prizes on offer throughout the day.

And competitors and spectators alike were kept fuelled by the Jalopy pizzas, ice creams, and candy floss as well as burgers, sausages and fries.

There was also the chance to buy t-shirts, skateboards and a whole range of safety and other equipment from the stalls dotted around the site.

The marketplace car park provided a variety of activities for people to try out. Jackson Turner was present with his Train Hard Parkour Freerunners.

West Dorset District Council went along with their mobile skatepark, there was bungee running, a graffiti wall and the opportunity to Beat the Stig with Casterbridge Rotary Club's scalextric racing cars.

Across the road in Maumbury Rings, there was a demonstration of the Maverick Slacklines, an extreme balance sport, with the chance to give it a go following displays of acrobatic skills by the experts.

Maybe the most interesting display was put on by Mark White of Dorset County Council Trading Standards. Aimed mainly at 16 - 24-year-olds, this guides youngsters into buying their first car safely, their legal rights, dealing with problems, and their rights as a consumer.

Supported by Dorset Police, Dorset Fire and Rescue and the Ambulance Service, a specially adapted car is used to highlight the pitfalls of buying your first vehicle. With half the car as it should be, the other half contains faults which they challenge you to find. And they can also re-create car crashes and offer advice on first aid.

This wonderful innovation won Mark White and his team the best stand and the best initiative at the recent Trading Standards Institute Conference. The car is also taken into schools and colleges as an aid to educating young people as to the hazards they may face if unaware of the dangers.

Praying for dry weather pays off at church fete

MAYOR of Dorchester, Councillor Tess James, cuts the tape to open St Peter's Church fete

THERE was a novel opening to St Peter's Church Fete when the Mayor of Dorchester, Councillor Tess James, found herself cutting a tape measure instead of the usual red ribbon accompanied by a very impressive drum roll.

But it obviously worked, with a little assistance from The Reverend Vicky Thurtell and her prayer mat, as the rain held off and the sun popped out from behind

by Anita Harries

a cloud.

Although a little windswept at times, lunch was served on the terrace and the barbecue kept under control.

And despite the tablecloths having a mind of their own, everyone enjoyed quiche with salad or a cheese or pate ploughmans.

A young gentleman called Alistair entertained visitors with his singing as they parted with their money on the tombola, raffle, cake stall, and human fruit machine. Plants, toiletries, postcards, books and bric-a-brac joined bat the rat, play your cards right, peas in the pot and sweets in the jar to tempt money from the purse into much needed church funds.

And a cleverly devised quiz entitled "Name the Roman Town" had folk reaching for the tea and coffee to refresh their brains.

Despite the blustery conditions, some rather elegant headwear appeared from time to time in an attempt to win the hat competition. Maybe the prize should have been awarded to the person who managed to keep theirs on their head the longest.

But everyone enjoyed themselves, smiles firmly on their faces, as St Peter's Church once again held another successful fete in the grounds of the vicarage in Herrington Road.

Teddy bears and friends picnic in the park

■ RIDGEWAY Bear meets his fans

IT was sunshine all the way as Dorchester Town Council held their 24th annual Teddy Bears Picnic in the Borough Gardens, Dorchester, on what was arguably the hottest Sunday of the year.

Teddy bears of every shape and size joined meerkats, dinosaurs, rabbits and countless other furry creatures as families picnicked on the grass and enjoyed the wonderful weather.

Town Clerk Dennis Holmes looked resplendent as ever in his nightshirt as Andy Worth and his comrades from Ridgeway Radio kept the event moving with a swing.

Parents were encouraged to join their children in an assortment of challenges involving footballs, hoola hoops and a spot or two of dancing.

Spot prizes were awarded, bubbles blown, teddy bears created from tubs of

by Anita Harries

playdoh, and faces painted as people sought the shade, the fountain, and more than the occasional ice cream to keep cool.

Children's games were manned by town councillors, ably assisted by members of Dorchester Moose and Dorchester Round Table, as skittles fell, rats were bashed, walls were painted, races won and lost, and all manner of objects thrown.

And as ever, the highlight of the day was the grand parade of teddy bears, led by Ridgeway Bear and the Mayor of Dorchester, Councillor Tess James.

The procession wound its way across the gardens before prizes were given and some very weary children made their way home.

■ A GIANT meerkat joins the party

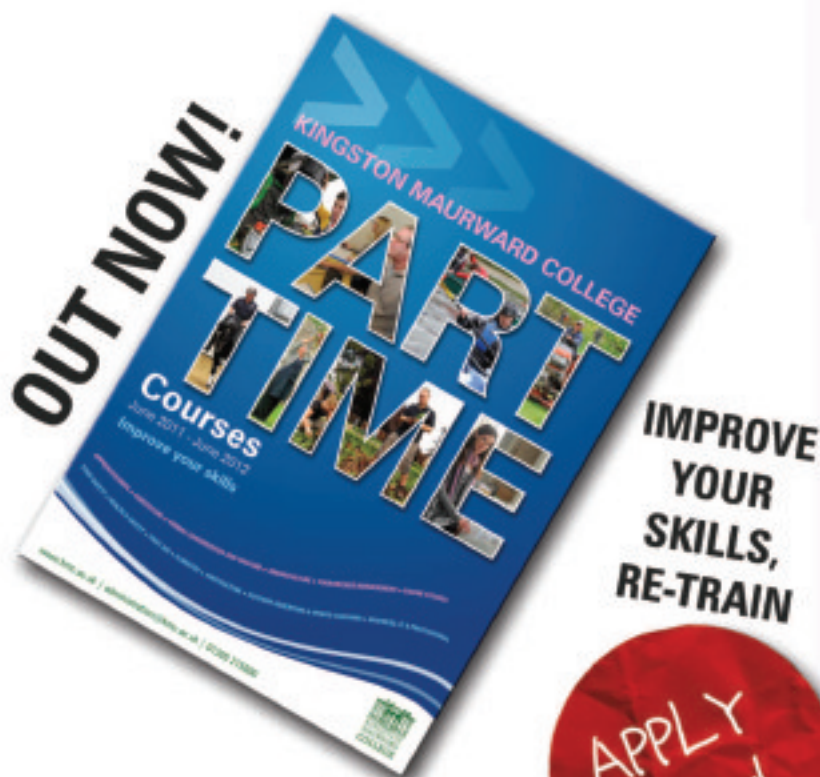

■ TEDDIES created from playdoh were a hit with the children

Nothing sedate about Morris Dancing

Throughout the spring and summer months View From Reporter TOM GLOVER is welcoming all challenges for this new column 'Take on Tom'. If your club, group or organisation would like to be the focus of this weekly column and could put Tom to the test then email him at tom@pemedial.co.uk or phone 01297 446154.

This week Tom joined the WESSEX MORRIS MEN for a night of performances.

THERE are few things more English than the sight of Morris Men on a summer's evening, drinking real ale from tankards and dancing at a village pub.

It's a kind of rock solid tradition that we would hate to see disappear.

The Wessex Morris Men are still going strong but they are on the lookout for some young blood. Thus I joined them on Monday evening for a trio of performances in village pubs around Weymouth.

The side is currently made up of men of retirement age, or those who are fast approaching it. They come from all walks of life and all parts of Dorset and a lot of them are ex sportsmen who have found the same camaraderie and team spirit in Morris Dancing.

The eldest member of the side is 85-year-old foreman Don Byfleet. Don has been dancing for 50 years and knows all there is to know about the art.

He is an ex rugby player and agrees that the two disciplines have a lot in common. "It's good exercise, you get a good run around in the bus with a lot of mates and at the end you all have a good sing song."

He is keen to add, the songs have a bit more class and style than those you might hear on the back of a rugby coach.

Morris Dancing does have a stigma attached to it which it finds hard to shake, and I imagine the younger sportsman feels he won't want to hang up his boots for bells anytime soon.

I'm aware of that stigma myself, it takes a lot to embarrass me but I have to admit I did feel a little self-conscious as I stepped out of the pub toilets in full Morris dancing regalia for the first time. It's hard to keep a low profile when you jingle on every step.

When the full side arrived that self-consciousness was lost and I just became one of the gang. It's a kit, like you would have in any sports team, only with bells and hankies.

Usually a new dancer would join the side in the autumn, train through the winter and come the summer they'd be competent at a handful of the dances.

I had 20 minutes practice in a conservatory a week before and then on Monday night I met the side at the The Smugglers Inn, Osmington Mills, ready for my debut.

I'd secretly hoped we may be tucked away in the corner in front of one man and his dog but instead we soon became the focal point of the pub garden with dozens of spectators.

The experts showed how it was done and with the first few mind-boggling dances, I really appreciated the intricacy of the footwork and the synchronisation of the dancers.

Each dance originates from an English village, generally from the Cotswolds. I had learnt the basics of the Bampton dances, one of the more simple to pick up.

My first dance of the night was Shepherd's Hey,

I did my best to keep up, hopping around and waving my hankies frantically. I got away with it and managed to survive unscathed. thanks to a lot of help from the side who welcomed me with open arms and went out of their way to make sure I didn't get lost.

I even got a sympathetic round of applause from the crowd when our Squire, Howard Gorrington, announced why I had joined them for the night.

Next on our tour schedule was the Bridge Inn, Preston. A smaller crowd this time and with my debut performance out of the way I settled in and began to enjoy it a bit more.

The side had approached me to do the column as they hoped it might attract some new, and perhaps younger, members.

It obviously had an instant impact because we recruited three children at the pub who each joined in a handclap dance. By the end of the performance the whole pub garden was up and dancing. Who needs Glastonbury when you've got Preston on a Monday night!

The final stop on the tour was Springhead in Sutton Poyntz. This appeared to be the quietest of the three pubs but once the music started playing the drinkers all came outside to see what was going on.

■ WESSEX Morris Men on the lookout for new members

I was clearly doing well because as the evening progressed one member suggested I join in with one of the stick dances. After being told that injuries in these dances ranged from broken fingers to fractured skulls, I decided against it.

With the dancing over we retired into the pub. The night was still young for the Morris Men and when I left at 10:30pm everyone was still in full song.

That was by far late enough on a Monday for me, I think I'd struggle to keep up with the three pubs a night routine of the Morris Men.

To tell the truth, before I set out on this challenge I thought Morris Dancing might be a little too sedate for the younger generation but after one night with Wessex Morris I think that a rugby team might be too sedate for them!

Thistlegate House

THE quality and equally the quantity of the staff that are employed within a residential care home is fundamental and vital for the sustained provision of high quality personal and individualistic care. Not only do they need to be highly trained in formal nationally recognised and measurable qualifications but also need special character qualities and everyday social skills together with an appreciation of the older generation, whose morals and standards may well differ from more recent trends. Effective communication skills is one of the most important qualities as without this particular skill proper understanding of the clients needs and wishes will not be understood and therefore the quality of care will suffer. Patience, empathy, commitment, resolve and an overall sense and desire to care is paramount.

At Thistlegate House we go to exacting lengths to firstly recruit the required calibre of staff and then provide them with the ongoing training that will enable them to provide the very finest care for our clients. We regard our care team as exceptional and we are proud that each and every member of our team possess all of the above qualities together with total dedication and commitment. Although the quality of care that we provide is excellent we are never complacent and we continue to strive for ever increasing standards of care and a better understanding of our clients needs and wishes.

Help and Care when you need it

Bymead House

Where quality care and a home from home is truly embraced

BYMEAD House is a medium sized dual registered home, offering a home from home atmosphere in Charmouth. Personal choice, individual freedom and comprehensive care are the foundations of the Bymead House philosophy - a philosophy shared by all staff and which is reflected in the home's calm and friendly atmosphere. The home is owned by Susan Blacklock and managed by Elizabeth Wilson both of who have many years experience as Registered Nurses.

Our aims and objectives are committing to providing the highest standards of care in an efficiently managed environment providing value for money services.

We do this by:

- A quality approach to the care of our residents, which is truly holistic.
- Providing staff with training, development and motivation necessary to achieve standards of excellence.

- Choosing local suppliers based on the quality of the service and product.

- Bymead House is committed to contributing to the communities it serves.

Susan has owned Bymead House since 1992. In that time she has developed and maintained the home always with the resident's needs uppermost. Susan and Elizabeth are proud of the reputation it has gained and all staff are fully committed to maintaining our aims as follows:

- Respect for the individual wishes of all our residents in maintaining a dignified and independent life style.

- To promote leisure and social activities of all kinds in which residents may participate if they choose.

- To provide a Manager and Staff who are trained to provide the highest possible standard of 24 hour care.

- To ensure that the Home, its surroundings and furnishings provide a comfortable setting allowing residents to enjoy a quality of life.

Recently Bymead House held a special Sunday service to remember those no longer with us, the newly built 'Memory garden' was blessed by the United Reformed Church in Charmouth and afterwards we all enjoyed a cream tea. The garden was an idea suggested by Elizabeth as part of Bymead's national accreditation towards gaining a 'Gold Standard for End of Life Care'. Sue Bartlett Hall, Activities Organiser and Mark Skinner the Maintenance Man both worked extremely hard to build the garden over the last few weeks and following generous gifts of plants and shrubs from relatives it is now beginning to look lovely. Over the coming years it will become a tranquil area for residents, relatives and staff to sit and remember their loved ones. If you wish to donate some bulbs or plants in memory of someone please do contact Bymead House.

Clarondene

CLARONDENE loves visitors. We have started our summer season of Respite Breaks this month; it is always stimulating to have new faces around the table, even if fleetingly.

This wonderful puppy in the photograph visited several times this month. Her name is Shadow and she is a Rhodesian Ridgeback, who will be much too big to sit on Frank's knee like this when she is fully grown. She has the beautiful soft coat of a puppy, with the ridge of hair growing backwards down her spine, typical of the breed. She is interested in the cats, seeing them as potential playmates, but they have no interest in her!

Lucy regularly brings her golden Labrador to visit, who is a completely different experience. She sits, sedate and patient, beside Lucy as she visits us all - unless Lucy leaves her for a minute, when she shows her delight on her reappearance.

Family visits are mostly shared by all, and familiar faces are waved at through the lounge doors as they arrive. Being a small home means that we all know each other well, and those with fewer visitors benefit from the more frequent. We are always delighted to see the family and friends of those who have passed away, and this month we so appreciated Kay's flying visit with the magnificent fruit cake she brought. Rosemary called in the other week, and it was lovely that she remembers us, even though our companion Joan left us last January. Joan's roses are flowering already, huge red blooms that say "Remember me", which is the name of that bush.

We normally look forward to Bethany Chapel's visit on the first Sunday of the month but once again it clashes with Men's Finals at Wimbledon. In the (vain?) hope we have something to celebrate, we are putting up the red, white and blue bunting and Bethany, bless them, are postponing until next week in case there could be a 'conflict of interest'!

Keep those visits coming - the kettle is always on!

Clarondene, a caring, single-story residential home in the heart of beautiful Lyme Regis

- Permanent, respite and day care packages for both privately and socially funded residents
- 24 Hour personalised care with resident proprietor
- Daily activities and community involvement, entertainment and outings on a frequent basis
- Regular visits by nurses, opticians, chiropodist, faith groups and hairdressers
- Friends and family welcome to visit at any time - including joining us for meals

Accommodation

All our ten rooms are individually decorated and include many personal belongings and touches such as photographs, ornaments, favourite furniture and music - all helping to create a homely atmosphere.

Caring Staff

Residents really appreciate the fresh, respectful and thoughtful care our staff give with their care and wellbeing. Staff work at Clarondene because they really do care. They are fully trained and committed to delivering personal, best, high quality attention to every resident.

Our chef provides nutritious, well balanced, home cooked food with a daily selection of menus and is happy to discuss and accommodate specific dietary requirements and preferences. We have been awarded the maximum 5 star rating for Food Safety & Hygiene by the Dorset Environmental Health Team.

Visit Portland, Dorset's own Treasure Island!

THE Isle of Portland is south of Weymouth and is the most southerly point in Dorset. It's famous for its stone that has been quarried for centuries providing features for famous national monuments such as St Paul's Cathedral.

Portland Bill, the most southerly tip of the "island" draws visitors from all over the world. Its distinctive red and white lighthouse still operates today and you can visit the Lighthouse Visitor Centre. Portland Harbour, the deepest man-made harbour in the UK, is going to be the location for the 2012 Olympic Games sailing trials. In the meantime, it's an ever-popular venue for a range of water sports.

The Isle of Portland is joined to the Dorset mainland solely by Chesil Beach - the long shingle bank that shields the Dorset coast between West Bay and Portland. Portland is Dorset's most southerly point lying five miles from Weymouth on the south coast.

Overlooking Portland Harbour is the sixteenth century Portland Castle. It was built under King Henry VIII in the early 1540's to defend the island from the French and Spanish. It is one of the best-preserved castles from this period and is open to the public between April-October.

Portland is one of the Gateway Towns on the Jurassic Coast World Heritage Site. There is an excellent viewpoint above Portland town that looks out over Chesil beach and West Dorset.

Portland boasts a fantastic range of independent retailers, some of which are featured on these pages. They all provide an outstanding service and are another great reason to visit the island.

The Ocean Spa

VERNA Herry BSC HONS MGPB managing director of The Ocean Spa explains the importance of holistic health

Holistic health is a concept that all contributing factors such as social, mental and physical which may affect a person's well being are taken into consideration - when assessing a person's overall health be it for massage or medical treatment. Holistic health is a traditional medicinal practice that upholds all aspect of people's needs. The word 'holistic' refers to the whole person and denotes the intricate connections between body, mind and soul. The human body is extraordinary in nature and precious. It is easy in this busy and stressful world to focus on the negatives around us and forget to look after ourselves. For example, as one of my clients puts it this way whilst giving her a facial, we routinely take our car for a regular service yet we neglect to do the same for ourselves! Holistic health combines the best of modern techniques with both ancient and innovative health promotions. These include exercise, nutritious diet, relaxation, meditation and breathing exercise etc. Holistic therapies such as reflexology, aromatherapy, Indian head massage, facials, hot stones, Bowen technique and Lymphatic drainage are just a few of the many treatments that aid relaxation.

So how do we stay healthy and enjoy life to its fullest? The answer is simple - create a Healthy Lifestyle. Balanced exercise and diet will help you! Here are some of the benefits and practices that can be achieved and put in place...

- Gain more energy through regular exercise
- Decision-making ability and confidence in roles are increased
- Achieve better all round performance
- Less susceptible to sickness and absenteeism
- Better work life balance is achieved
- Enhance integration with colleagues,

family and friend

- Eat a balance diet
- Eat 3 to 6 meals a day
- Cut back on alcohol and smoking
- Key your body hydrated with water

For more information and to book a personal consultation with our expert health and therapy specialists on how to help you lead a healthy lifestyle please call, The Ocean Spa team on 01305 824117 or email booking@theoceanspa.co.uk or visit www.theoceanspa.co.uk

Dorchester Curiosity Centre opens its doors

THE latest business to open its doors in the county town, the Dorchester Curiosity Centre, welcomed members of the public to its first trading day at the weekend. With both indoor and outdoor trading areas, the Centre aims to sell antiques, modern and retro furniture shabby, chic, old and new art, jewellery, accessories, crafts, unusual gifts, organic food, plants and much, much more. Amongst the stalls busy trading on its first Saturday, visitors could buy almost anything from coal scuttles to garden statues and cinema posters to rustic tables and chairs. Fresh cherries were on offer along with burgers and sausages from Clayford Farm Produce, and granite, slate and marble fireplaces made to order. There were wonderful displays by Zavian Vintage Interiors, and the stunningly elegant, wearable vintage clothing of Mary Sharp. And the Old Tea House came along with the most delicious cup cakes, plain and fruit scones, lemon drizzle, and ginger cake – and a lovely cup of tea or coffee to wash it down. There is also a selection of cabinets to rent and the opportunity to have furniture and other valuable items such as Rolex and Cartier watches sold on a commission basis.

Proprietor Dean is still looking for more table

top sellers, both for midweek and the weekends. And with ample free parking available, he hopes this is an offer local traders will grab with both hands. Saturday, 25th June sees his first Vintage Fair/Funday for the kids, as an event he hopes to hold once a month and he will be actively encouraging people to hold art exhibitions, wine tastings and other events in an effort to bring the wider community to the Dorchester Curiosity Centre. If you would like to discuss selling or trading, or would like to know more about the Centre, you can call Dean on 07956 540047 or 01305 251886. Savers continue to suffer under low interest rates

With continuing low interest rates, many people who rely on their savings and investments to top up their income have continued to be disappointed with returns. Deposit based savings such as bank and building society accounts and cash ISA's offer a guarantee that your capital amount does not decrease but at what risk? What will the buying power of that money be and is your money devaluing every day that it remains there?

The most important consideration when looking and savings or investments of any kind is diversification, not having all your eggs in one basket and not only avoid holding all you monies in one account but also ensuring that you have a range of assets within your portfolio to ensure exposure to different areas as well as an element of stability through assets with underlying guarantees which can be achieved in a number of ways. The banks are under increasing pressure to make profits, so now more than ever is the time to ensure that you get advice based on what's best for you.

Alison Theobald of Pennywise Independent Financial Advisers can explore all options from across the whole market and has huge numbers of products to choose from depending on attitude to risk right through from basic investment solutions to more advanced bespoke investment management packages.

Fed up with poor returns on your savings and investments call today for your free consultation on 01305 268942.

New Exhibition at Dorset County Museum

A fantastic new family exhibition opens at Dorset County Museum on Saturday 2 July. Whirrs, Cogs and Thingamabobs is a collection of over 150 weird and wonderful gadgets owned by award-winning collector, Maurice Collins. Maurice, who was recently given the title 'Britain's Best Collector', began gathering strange objects, devices and inventions 35 years ago when he took his son to a local rubbish dump near their home to go 'bottle digging'. Since then he has amassed nearly 1600 objects ranging from a clockwork burglar alarm to an electric hair-restoring comb. He is also the proud owner of two clockwork teasmids, a finger stretcher and a mechanical envelope sealer.

Other objects in the collection include pre-shrunk 'toe socks', a purse with a secret compartment for a pistol designed to shoot highwaymen, and a set of battery-powered spectacles designed to help you read in the dark, but which in fact were more likely to electrocute you!

The exhibition of Maurice's gadgets and devices will be complemented by a range of strange objects from the Museum's own stores and is suitable for the whole family. It runs until 15 October 2011.

A series of special family activities linking with the exhibition will run throughout the summer holidays. These activities will be held every Wednesday morning from 27 July to August from 10.30am to 12.30 pm. Each activity costs just £3 per child and everyone is welcome – there's no need to book, just pop in on the day.

For more information visit the Museum website on www.dorsetcountymuseum.org or phone 01305 262735

Summer allergies?

A Health column brought to you by Naturalife

Winter is behind us, spring is in full swing and summer is just around the corner! You'd think, then, that sneezes and sniffles would be long gone, but from as early as February, pollen causes misery to many people suffering from asthma, hay fever and skin allergies, as trees start producing airborne pollen, and in late spring and early summer, flowers and grasses can cause even more problems.

However, on a positive note, we're always looking for new products and solutions to our customers' health problems and this year, we've really hit the jackpot as far as asthma and summer allergies are concerned. We've just taken on two new scientifically-backed products that can be used together or separately so you can enjoy the great outdoors!

Quercetin & Bromelain

Quercetin is a bioflavonoid naturally found in foods such as onions and apples. It's fantastic during the pollen season because of its ability to stabilise the cell membranes of the white blood cells, preventing the release of histamine. During an allergic reaction, histamine usually floods into the surrounding blood and tissues, causing a stuffy nose and running eyes. However, without this release of histamine, these symptoms are tempered, even though you have inhaled the pollen, dust, animal dander or whatever it is that normally causes a problem.

What's more, quercetin is known to help manage the formation of 'leukotrienes', the main inflammatory chemicals that play a role in asthma, making breathing difficult and causing feelings of tightness in the chest.

This dual action of quercetin on both histamine and leukotrienes gives it a wide range of health benefits. Quercetin is barely soluble in water so, while it is present in many foods, poor dietary absorption may limit its benefits. One way to get around this is to take quercetin in combination with bromelain, a protein-digesting enzyme found in pineapples, to improve its absorption.

If you'd like more information on either of these botanicals, please do pop in for a free information leaflet and/or some impartial advice.

The Saltpipe

The Saltpipe has a license as a Class 1 medical device and we're very excited as it's been known to help everything from asthma and hay fever to chronic snoring. It can also help if you suffer from shortness of breath, severe coughs and colds or the effects of a smoky, polluted environment. The salt in this ceramic pipe has been mined since the second century AD from the Transylvanian Praid Salt Mine. Halotherapy, or salt therapy, has been used since Hippocrates' time as a way of improving breathing. Breathing in salt-saturated air helps healthy mucus production and elimination, and relaxes airways. So, if you suffer from mucus at this time of year, or at any time, you may find the Saltpipe useful this summer. We've not been selling them for long, but the testimonials have already begun flooding in from customers who've used it!

Until next time, wishing you health and happiness.

'Voodoo' could be
sound of the summer

PAPA Le Gál return to Lyme Regis on Saturday for a gig to officially launch their long-awaited debut EP 'Voodoo'.

Now based in Bristol, the exciting and colourful funky five-piece have long been regarded as one of the top live bands in the area, but until now have not ventured into recording.

Well, it's been worth the wait.

The five song EP kicks off with the title track Voodoo, a fantastic dance stomper, with catchy group-vocal hooks, Olli Dixon's slick guitar riffs and blasts of brass, all superbly backed by Greg Walters' strong samba beat.

Voodoo is followed up by the unbelievably cheerful, summery Wake Up, with doubled up lead vocals from Grace Gillan and Jacques Verhaeren - a vocal duo whose live-performance energy is beautifully captured on the record. The track is wonderfully underpinned by the melodic bass line and jangly guitar lead, and Wil Bensons' understated-yet-spot-on sax.

A newer addition to live sets, Sidewinder features Grace heading up vocals with a genuine effortless soul, backed by a super-cool funk groove and laid-back loose drums. Midway through the song breaks into an off-kilt guitar line followed by a well-placed trumpet solo, before returning to the main groove.

The wonderfully atmospheric Tel Aviv, which was featured on Bristol's Southsound radio this Monday, paints a vivid picture, calling on a chilled dub rhythm, and kicking off vocally with Jacques' powerful reggae-infused sounds, before Grace joins in vocals. An irresistible walking bass line and echoing guitar strokes join a tight beat to carry the track musically.

For me, the undoubted stand-out (taking nothing away from the previous four tunes) is Take A Step, a song so infectious and upbeat it could easily be a summer radio smash. Starting off with interweaving funky bass and guitar, and a skipping drum beat, the track is brought to life by the joyous vocals of Jacques and Grace, and powers through with occasional brass bursts and a melodic and understated guitar solo with a 60s surf vibe.

The recording of Take A Step encapsulates the energy and feel-good spirit of the live favourite - no mean feat - and nicely rounds the EP off.

If you've never seen Papa live before, this is a chance not to pass up, and if you have you don't need telling twice!

■ Papa Le Gál, with support from The King Louis Collective, play at the Harbour Inn, Lyme Regis on Saturday (July 2nd). Admission is free, and music starts at 9.30pm.

Le Jazz to perform at St Candida's Church

ST CANDIDA'S Church, Whitchurch Canonorum is to be the venue for an exciting performance by one of the west Country's best known jazz quartets - 'Le Jazz' - at the culmination of this year's flower festival on Sunday, July 3rd. The four musicians are a Devon-based ensemble of saxophone, guitar, double bass and keyboards and their concert is by way of a thank you, having recently recorded a CD in the church.

Chris Gradwell is an associate of the Royal Academy of Music and has freelanced with all the London orchestras, especially the London Symphony, Royal Philharmonic and National Philharmonic. He also founded and played with the London Saxophone Quartet, and has had his own big band - The Little Big Band. Since moving to Devon five years ago, Chris plays with The Beare, Le Jazz, The Little Big Band and AJ's Big Band.

Andrew Barrett is one of the West Country's best known jazz guitarists, he has performed internationally in Scandinavia, Portugal, France and New York. London venues he has appeared at include The Royal Academy of Arts, The Ritz and the 100 Club, the oldest live music venue in the capital.

Mike Thorn plays double bass for the group. Born in Cornwall, he toured the world for several years with Charles Aznavour before returning to England to play for the London West End theatre. Mike has performed and recorded with many of the great international Jazz soloists, and continues to accompany them in West Country tours where he has established himself as a mainstay of the South West's lively jazz scene.

Andrew Daldorph, a former pupil of Tiffin's boys school Kingston, graduated with a first class honours degree in music from the University of Southampton in 1993. He then took up the post of Organ Scholar at Guildford Cathedral under Andrew Millington and subsequently gained Fellowship of the Royal College of Organists. Andrew took lessons from some of the world's most eminent organists, including Peter Hurford, David Hill, David Sanger and Dame Gillian Weir, and on the harpsichord of both the Exeter Chamber Choir and the East Devon Choral Society. Joining the musicians for this special concert will be singer Kate Walker. Kate studied singing at Welsh College of Music and Drama and appears regularly in oratorio and concerts throughout the region. Kate continues to study with world renowned Mezzo Soprano Claire Powell. Although classically trained, singing popular songs from the eras of the 20's to the 40's has become a regular part of her performances. With Andrew Daldorph and Chris Gradwell from Le Jazz she sings in the cabaret trio, Music Deco.

The concert begins at 7.30pm. Tickets will be £10 to include a glass of wine and nibbles, and they are available on the door. For further information please contact Cynthia Bain, 01297 489629.

Wear a hat for Quangle concert!

THE Quangle Wangle Choir invites you to bring a hat to join in the hat song when they give a concert at the Litton and Thorne's Community Hall at Litton Cheney. The popular community choir from Weymouth are promising a great evening's entertainment on Saturday, July 2nd, at 7.30pm. Any variety of hat will do - from Sherlock Holmes to Mother of the Bride!

The choir's infectious enthusiasm shines through their concerts with a repertoire that ranges from a dramatic eighteenth century psalm setting by a Dorset composer to Elton John and the Beatles. With songs of shipwrecks, love - and of course a hat - there will be something for everyone, sprinkled with Quangle humour to wash it down.

Admission is £6, payable on the door. Accompanied children are both welcome and free. To reserve a ticket, or for more information about the choir, contact Juliet Harwood on 01305 814940 or julietharwood@hotmail.com. Alternatively, visit the choir's website at www.qwchoir.co.uk.

Poetry for Pleasure

by Frank McGarry

ONE of our readers in Wareham, Christine Bridson-Jones, has sent us this story, which she wrote in 2004

CARA, MY PUPPY FROM A TREE

This is the story of Cara, my puppy brought up in a tree;

Her mother, abandoned but loving,
Lived life running wild, running free.
She had six lovely puppies, but one of them died.
They'd been born near a finca in Spain's countryside.
Not trusting mere humans, she carried away
The other five babies and hid them by day.
We searched high and low, not knowing their fate
But had to go home when night became late.
At last her dear mother came to visit for food,
Then tried to lead me across to this wood.
We reached a steep bank, which I just couldn't climb,
So returned home, despondent, black with grime.
The next day, so hungry, she called on me again;
I dressed in my sturdy shoes ready for when
She would lead me again to her secret place.
She had to have somewhere, a home or a base.
This time I managed to peer into a hollow
Deep in a gnarled olive tree, didn't follow,
Just spied one vague outline of a small dog inside,
Thinking she'd lost all the others I cried.
One day when I went to the tree in the sun,
A magical moment appeared - not just one,
But five lovely puppies. One came to me
As if to say 'One day I'll be yours, you'll see.'

Each day I took rations, some food and some drink,
And mother stood watching me, was grateful I think,
Until Cara came home with me, mum cried a bit,
But she knew where our home was and that we were fit.

Cara's my dear pet, special gift just for me,
Cara, my puppy dog, brought up in a tree.

As we are on the subject of dogs, here is another dog poem. This one is from the American writer John Kendrick Banks.

MY DOG

I have no dog, but it must be Somewhere there's one belongs to me -
A little chap with wagging tail,
And dark brown eyes that never quail,
But look you through, and through, and through,
With love unspeakable and true.

Somewhere it must be, I opine,
There is a little dog of mine
With cold black nose that sniffs around
In search of what things may be found
In pocket or some nook hard by
Where I have hid them from his eye.

Somewhere my doggie pulls and tugs
The fringes of rebellious rugs,
Or with the mischief of the pup
Chews all my shoes and slippers up,
And when he's done it to the core,

With eyes all eager, pleads for more.

Somewhere upon his hinder legs
My little doggie sits and begs,
And in a wistful minor tone
Pleads for the pleasures of the bone -
I pray it be his owner's whim
To yield, and grant the same to him.

Somewhere a little dog doth wait;
It may be by some garden gate,
With eyes alert and tail attent -
You know the kind of tail that's meant -
With stores of yelps of glad delight
To bid me welcome home at night.

Somewhere a little dog is seen,
His nose two shaggy paws between,
Flat on his stomach, one eye shut
Held fast in a dreamy slumber, but
The other open, ready for
His master coming through the door.

County Show looking to break record

DANCING sheep will be looking to help break the record attendance at this year's Dorset County Show in September.

'The Sheep Show' is a humorous educational live stage show about sheep and wool, and will interest people of all ages and gives a real insight to how the wool from a sheep's back becomes a jumper. The sheep even show the audience a dance step or two! The act will interest people of all ages and gives a real insight to how the wool from a sheep's back becomes a jumper.

Show Secretary Sam Mackenzie-Green said: 'The dancing sheep are becoming really popular so I had to get them at the Dorset County Show. The best bit is the presenters; not only is this a very funny display, but it's educational, too. Who knew a sheep could dance!'

With the UK's number one motorbike display team 'Bolddog Lings' ready to wow the crowds at show on September 3rd and 4th, the event is on track to be the most amazing yet and break last year's record of over 56,000 visitors.

The Bolddog Lings stunt team will perform a jaw dropping performance and will feature a wide selection of freestyle motocross tricks. They practice on the biggest ramp in the world and jump over 75ft.

Show Secretary Sam Mackenzie-Green said: 'They are amazing to watch, have you on the edge of your seat. I can't wait to see them at the Show. It is going to be great to see them zooming and wheel spinning round the main ring.'

Now in its 170th year, the Dorchester show has got an exciting range of attractions that showcase the traditional country life including over 6,000 animals and 450 tempting stands which are already up 10% for this year.

Adams Axemen, the country's best-known lumberjack display team, will be showing their sheer strength with their exhaustingly good performance. The team are based in Bere Regis, Dorset, and have over 40 years of experience at shows. They definitely know how to pull a crowd with their lightning quick chainsaw sculptures.

Back by popular demand, there will be a large poultry tent where the public will be able to see and buy rare breeds of birds, whilst Titan the Robot is back strutting amongst the crowd.

Other attractions include the fancy dress sheep class, Wolfman Shaun Ellis, Jonathan Marshall Falconry, carriage driving, cooking demonstrations, Woody The One Man Band, gun dog display teams and terrier racing.

Shoppers will be delighted that the Dorset County Show committee have decided to freeze ticket prices at £10 for adults (advanced tickets) and children go free!

NEW RELEASESTRANSFORMERS: DARK OF THE MOON ^{12A}

The Autobots Bumblebee, Ratchet, Ironhide and Sideswipe led by Optimus Prime, are back in action, taking on the evil Decepticons, who are determined to avenge their defeat in 2009's Transformers: Revenge of the Fallen. In this new movie, the Autobots and Decepticons become involved in a perilous space race between the U.S. and Russia, and once again human Sam Witwicky has to come to the aid of his robot friends. There's new characters too, including a new villain in the form of Shockwave, a longtime "Transformers" character who rules Cybertron while the Autobots and Decepticons battle it out on Earth. Starring Shia Lebeouf

THE CONSPIRATOR ^{12A}

In the wake of Abraham Lincoln's assassination, seven men and one woman are arrested and charged with conspiring to kill the President, the Vice-President, and the Secretary of State. The lone woman charged, Mary Surratt, 42, owns a boarding house where John Wilkes Booth and others met and planned the simultaneous attacks. Against the ominous back-drop of post-Civil War Washington, newly-minted lawyer, Frederick Aiken, a 28-year-old Union war-hero, reluctantly agrees to defend Surratt before a military tribunal. As the trial unfolds, Aiken realizes his client may be innocent and that she is being used as bait and hostage in order to capture the only conspirator to have escaped a massive manhunt, her own son. Stars James MacAvoy and Evan Rachel Wood

LARRY CROWNE ^{12A}

Until he was downsized, affable, amiable Larry Crowne (Tom Hanks) was a superstar team leader at the big-box company where he's worked since his time in the Navy. Underwater on his mortgage and unclear on what to do with his suddenly free days, Larry heads to his local college to start over. There he becomes part of a colourful community of outcasts, also-rans and the overlooked all trying to find a better future for themselves...often moving around town in a herd of scooters. In his public-speaking class, Larry develops an unexpected crush on his teacher Mercedes Tainot (Julia Roberts), who has lost as much passion for teaching as she has for her husband. The simple guy who has every reason to think his life has stalled will come to learn an unexpected lesson: when you think everything worth having has passed you by, you just might discover your reason to live.

UNIQUE FOLK BAND SPIRO
FOR ARTS CENTRE GIG

SPIRO, a truly original quartet of folk-based musicians are bringing their soulful and passionate melodies to Bridport Arts Centre on Friday (July 1st).

Alex Vann (mandolin), Jane Harbour (violin), Jason Sparkes (accordion) and Jon Hunt (guitar) have taken the bare bones of English traditional music's themes and structures and applied the full architecture of contemporary minimalism as well as the sensibility of stadium-dance music.

The result is a kind of Ye Olde Orbital meets Michael Nyman, a thunderously gripping dance music devoid of both drum and bass and a deeply emotional soul rooted in the very soil of England.

"When I first listened to the music of Spiro, I thought it was really different. The sounds that hit you first are sounds that you are familiar with; they sound folk, but once you start listening to the music and how it's composed you hear elements of systems music - people like Steve Reich, Philip Glass, dance music. All sorts of musical influences are woven into this very contemporary music. I think this is soulful music, passionate music and I love it." - Peter Gabriel

Tickets are £12 / £11 members and £10 concessions from the box office call 01308 424204.

Dub Pistols Postponed

THE BLOODY CLASH OF TWO EMPIRES

NERVOUS ADULT SWIMMING LESSONS AT BRIDPORT LEISURE CENTRE

NOT confident in the Water? Never had time to learn to Swim?

Now is your chance to try Adult Swimming Lessons at Bridport Leisure Centre.

This special introductory course of lessons is aimed at those Adults who are nervous, weak or non swimmers and would like to learn to Swim.

You will spend around 45 minutes in the water covering a variety of skills and techniques to help you gain in confidence and start to swim, or improve on what you already can do.

There will then be time after you have changed to have a cup of coffee/tea and discuss what you achieved and what the next lesson will hold. After the six lessons you will be given information to enable you to join the weekly lessons for Adults.

Penny Steventon, Swimming Coordinator, says "we tried a course of six lessons for Nervous Adults last summer and it was very successful, with some of the swimmers gaining enough confidence to now come swimming on their own during our public sessions while some others have joined our weekly lessons. We found everyone enjoyed the social side after the lesson and that then helped everybody in the pool as they felt they knew each other better and realised that everyone was in the same position and so very quickly became a support group for all. Some of the swimmers who attended last year still come and practice with the friends they made during their six week course. From a Teachers perspective it is very rewarding to help anyone learn to swim and organised this way means we get to join the swimmers socially as well which all helps in the building of trust and then helping everyone to achieve as much as they can in the time available."

With a maximum of 12 spaces and taken by two ASA Qualified Swimming Teachers who will be in the water to assist and support you from the beginning, this could be the start of your swimming for enjoyment and fitness, it is well documented that swimming is an excellent form of exercise that can be enjoyed by all ages.

Courses run from Monday, July 25th to Monday, August 29th 2011, 6-7pm.

To enrol on the course please fill in the Registration form available from Reception at Bridport Leisure Centre, or contact Penny on 01308 427464 for more details.

Boy le Monti play at Beach and Barnicott

Along the way the band have supported The Beat,

Skaville UK and The Destroyers. Their well received debut album was released in 2007.

Bridport Hawks hockey sessions start soon

Former England under 22 international heads coaching team

FORMER England under 22 international hockey player Mike Harvey heads up the coaching team for this year's Summer School to be held on the astroturf hockey pitch at Colfox School Bridport. Six coaching sessions will be held for one hour each at 10.30 am on consecutive Sundays starting on 24th July. There will be two groups, the first for beginners and the second for former players who need their skills and knowledge of the rules brushing up. Sticks will be provided and the sessions are free. Players just need to turn up in football kit, but with Astroturf shoes (with pimples) or trainers. By the end of the 6 week course it is expected that those who have attended all sessions would be competent to join in the pre season training, and by attending the pre season training would be ready for the second team by the start of the season. The timing of the end of the coaching school is to coincide with the start of club training in August for the new season, with matches starting at the end of September.

The club runs two teams, both in the Western area leagues, with away games a maximum of one hour drive. Home matches are on Saturday afternoons and training every Tuesday evening, with both taking place at Colfox School.

Mike Harvey says 'we take the game as seriously as each player wants. Some of us live and breathe it, but others play when they can and we understand that. Most people that join us soon get hooked. This game very sociable and is a lot of fun, and if anyone wants to achieve a good level of play and fitness we can get them there.

Musical magpie Mr Scruff to 'Keep It Unreal' with 5-hour DJ set

NINJA Tune recording artist and musical magpie Mr. Scruff brings his feel-good freestyle blend of hip hop, soul, funk, jazz, disco, house, reggae, latin, afrobeat, breaks and more to the Electric Palace on Saturday, August 27th for one of his infamous five-hour DJ sets.

Scruff is known to hail the arrival of the laptop and how accessible it makes music creation for all. "There's an enormous amount of music being released because it's so easy to do now. It's lead to an inordinate amount of bad music but also an incredible amount of good music, there's just more to wade through."

Scruff has established himself as a general guarantor of quirkiness and quality, so much so that when his range of specialty teas were launched they became the 5th best selling grocery product in the long and illustrious history of Selfridge's Food Hall. Meanwhile, his trademark wobbly potato people adorn t-shirts, brollies and even people's bodies world-wide.

Mr Scruff's music videos and onstage performances are accompanied and characterised by his unique illustrations. "I've drawn in that exact style for twenty years now. On one level I'm really kind of geeky and trainspottery and nerdy about music so the little potato characters show the other side which is the kind of daft eccentric silly side as well. It's good to present something which can potentially be very beardstroky."

Tickets are on sale now for £10.50 from Bridport Tourist Info Centre 01308 424901. For more information see www.electricpalace.org.uk

A magical puppet show at Bridport and Dorchester Arts Centres

PUPPETCRAFT return to Dorchester and Bridport in July bringing to life the popular children's book The Mousehole Cat by Antonia Barber. Inspired by an old folk legend, the story tells of the Cornish fishing village of Mousehole where a storm has been raging for weeks.

Everyone is hungry as the boats cannot leave the harbour to fish so old Tom Bawcock the fisherman and his cat Mowzer set out to sea in their tiny boat, braving the fury of the Great Strom-Cat to try and save the village.

Despite a fearsome gale on the day before Christmas Eve Tom saves the village from starvation, catching seven sorts of fish, enough for everyone to make and enjoy a life-saving, local delicacy - starry gazey pie.

This charming tale, still celebrated each year in the village of Mousehole, is brought to life by carved wooden puppets, coloured shadows, live music, song and a beautiful set.

This latest show from the Devon based company PuppetCraft promises to delight anyone over the age of four years and young at heart as it magically portrays Mousehole's folk legend and gives everyone a chance to celebrate singing the chorus of "starry- gazey pie!"

See it at Dorchester ARTS Centre on Friday, July 8th at 5pm (Tickets: £7 adults / £6 members, £5 Children, £20 family) Box Office 01305 266926, and at Bridport Arts Centre on Sunday, July 10th at 11.30am (Tickets: £10 adult / £7 members / £6 children / £30 family) Box Office 01308 424204.

The whole coastline with Lyme Regis and Charmouth at its centre has recently been designated a World Heritage Site, named the Jurassic Coast, putting it in the same category as the Grand Canyon. Taunton and Exeter are within a radius of about 30 miles with access to the M5 motorway and the county town of Dorchester is a similar distance. Locally there are primary schools in Lyme Regis and Uplyme along with the well respected Woodroffe and Colyton Grammar Schools.

This property is on the market for £525,000. For more information please call Fortnam Smith & Banwell Lyme Regis on 01297 445666.

The latest version of the TomTom app comes with the option to plan up to five stops

Today, TomTom releases version 1.8 of its navigation App for iPhone, with a brand new feature: multi-stop routes. Available for the first time on the TomTom App, this feature makes it easier for drivers to make multiple stops on a single route, by letting them add up to five stop-off points when they plan their journey. Multi-stop routes enable the driver to plan a trip to the petrol station, or a diversion to pick up a friend, as part of a longer journey. This removes the hassle of entering a new journey each time and means that the driver can get an accurate estimated time of arrival for their final destination.

This new App release also gives users the latest map which includes recent changes to the roads. Plus TomTom has updated its fixed speed camera database so drivers can stay safe and avoid fines with the most up-to-date locations.

"At TomTom, we want to make navigation as easy as possible for drivers", says Corinne Vigreux, Managing Director Consumer at TomTom. "The new multi-stop routes feature is the latest example of that. If drivers want to make a few stops on their journey, they can just tap in the destinations from the start. It takes into account that people lead busy lives, often it's more efficient to run errands all in one go. This feature will help to make driving stress-free and more enjoyable, while saving drivers a bit of time."

This new version of the TomTom App for iPhone still includes all the great features from previous releases. It can offer:

- * The quickest way through traffic, proven-powered by TomTom HD Traffic and available as an in-App purchase
- * Fewer speeding fines with real-time fixed camera alerts via TomTom Speed Cameras, available as an in-App purchase.
- * The most accurate TomTom maps with no mobile signal needed
- * Daily free map updates via Map Share
- * Reliable arrival times at all times of day with IQ Routes
- * Clear turn-by-turn guidance while on the phone thanks to iOS Multitasking support
- * Seamless integration with iPhone contacts, photos, music, email and calendar, including the navigate-to-photo feature
- * TomTom's most popular celebrity voices, available as in-App purchases.

The TomTom App for iPhone v1.8 is available for purchase via the App Store. Continental and regional versions of the TomTom App are available today for iPhone 4, iPhone 3GS, iPhone 3G and iPod touch users at <http://www.tomtom.com/tomtom-app>

TomTom HD Traffic is an optional subscription-based service available for in-App purchase.

Cars are getting greener

Today's cars generate 14 per cent of all CO₂ emissions in the UK, marginally less than in 2000, despite an increase of 4 million cars on the road according to Energy use and CO₂ emissions, the latest motoring facts report from road safety charity the IAM. While carbon emissions from all forms of road transport continue to rise, the rate from cars fell from 196 grams of CO₂ per km in 1997 to 174 grams CO₂ per km in 2008. Total UK emissions are forecast to increase but those from cars are set to continue falling. The report also finds that:

- People's perception is that cars and aircraft are the two biggest carbon polluters, when in fact the top two are power stations and industry.

- Since 1997 the overall fuel economy of new cars has improved by a quarter, mostly in the last ten years.

- Average new car fuel consumption for petrol cars fell from 8.28 litres per 100km in 1997 to 6.93 litres per 100km in 2008.

- Households produce as much CO₂ as cars.

- The biggest single consumer is the energy generating industry itself when it converts one form of energy into another (for example oil to electricity) and through energy lost in distribution. IAM director of policy and research Neil Greig said: "Despite what many green experts may say, Britain's drivers and the motoring industry are doing their bit to reduce carbon emissions. Drivers are shifting to greener engines and have embraced incentives like cheaper vehicle excise duty for more fuel efficient models. "Manufacturers should also take credit for producing models across the range that are cleaner and greener. But driving style is crucial - the best fuel-saver is a light right foot and anticipation of the road ahead."

How to improve your MPG and cut carbon emissions:

- Keep your vehicle moving rather than stopping and starting. Look further ahead and slow down earlier to avoid stopping. Driving at a constant speed is far more fuel efficient than heavy accelerating and braking.

- Check your tyres. Under-inflated tyres have a big impact on fuel economy.

- Put your car on a diet. remove unnecessary weight, including roof racks, car clutter and heavy items in the boot.

- Try to avoid using air conditioning and climate control at low speeds as they increase fuel consumption. Open a window.

- However at high speeds, close your windows to maintain the aerodynamics of the car. Use air-con to get the car to a comfortable temperature, and then turn it off to save fuel.

- Clean screens rarely mist up - so you'll use the heater and air-conditioning less.

- Try changing up your gears earlier; for petrol engines at 2,500 rpm (revs per minute), and diesel engines 2,000 rpm

- Reverse into parking bays: manoeuvring with a cold engine uses more fuel, so make the most of having a hot engine.

- It will take most cars at least a couple of miles to warm up and run efficiently. Could you walk or cycle?

- Drive at an even pace over speed humps. Slowing down and speeding up drinks more fuel.

- Stick to the speed limit.

9 for 34! Straker strikes on seaming track

DORSET FUNERAL PLAN LEAGUE
Premier League

PARLEY 166-5 BEAT DORCHESTER 164 ALL OUT BY FIVE WICKETS
LOSING the toss and a couple of unfortunate dismissals saw Dorchester lose their clash with reigning champions Parley as they both battle for the title.

Forced to bat first on a wicket affected by overnight rain, they got off to a bad start when Rob Waite saw the ball roll gently back onto his stumps after playing a forward defensive shot with just nine on the board.

Barber (3-43) then yorked Adam Rendell (3) and Dan Belt (12) followed to leave the county town on 50-3. Dave Maslan (25) however was looking in fine form but then got a big high nick that the wicket keeper could only parry but was brilliantly caught by Raj Naik on the rebound.

Captain Martyn Richards (16) looked to have steadied the ship but after a couple of nice boundaries succumbed to a full toss, and only a eighth wicket stand of 51 between top scorer Chris Backhouse (28) and Jon Legg (8) playing a fine support role gave the innings credence with Phil Morley (23) hitting a few lusty blows at the finish to close at 164 all out.

In reply Collins (31) and Barber (48) got Parley off to a great start with a stand of 97, but both fell within a run to Waite (1-27) and James Dunham (1-34) respectively. However Jaques and Naik took the score to 132 before Rendell dismissed Jaques (23) with his first ball.

Although Rendell (2-11) also trapped Robbie Gunn (4) leg before, and Legg (1-14) had Price caught by Phil Morley, Naik (30 not out) and Roshan Embalgama (7 not out) saw them home in the blazing sunshine on a now very flat track and fast outfield with ten overs to spare.

Richards said: "It was a bad day out. And after losing the toss in gloomy, wet conditions, a signal that it wasn't to be our day was when Rob Waite was dismissed.

"All in all it was an uninspiring day for us where everything seemed to go against us. Having said that it was a good performance by Parley who have some good young cricketers and showed us the levels of discipline we need to hit with the ball and in the field in particular.

STALBRIDGE 251-8 BEAT WEYMOUTH 204 ALL OUT BY 47 RUNS
WEYMOUTH might have expected to have come away from the Park with a win after they reduced their hosts to 91-6, but the George Wissett-Warner found his form and took the game away from the Seaside with a magnificent century to set a good target of 251-8.

With Stuart Sweatman (37) and Ollie Calcott (16) adding 49 for the first wicket Stalbridge appeared to be in charge but with Sweatman's demise five wickets crashed as Weymouth regained the initiative.

However Wissett-Warner who had rode his luck early on found an ally in Rob Knight (33) as they added 129 for the seventh wicket with Wissett-Warner finally falling for 122.

Dan Hutchens in his first game back was best for the hosts with 3-33.

Unfortunately Weymouth's top order all made starts but couldn't go on except Dean Janaway (37) and they were struggling at 128-7. However Cube Whyte took the game to Stalbridge, hitting a fine half century (56) off just 39 balls, but his efforts and late runs from Hutchens (14) couldn't prevent defeat.

Division Two

BEAMINSTER 129 ALL OUT LOST TO SWANAGE 171-8 BY 42 RUNS
BEAMINSTER looked to be well on the way to victory against the current league leaders when they reduced Swanage to 53-6, but a late rally from the tail saw them reach the unlikely total of 171-8 in their allotted overs.

Beaminster's top order also failed to register and the home side were 12-4 before Colin Lloyd came to the rescue but it was too late as Beaminster were dismissed 42 runs short of their target.

Beaminster were delighted to win the toss and field on a green damp wicket, and with perfect overhead conditions for swing bowling, their bowlers performed well as they swung the ball and found movement off of the pitch.

Joe Hawkins (2-35) took two early wickets including a sharp catch by Nick David in the gully to leave Swanage on 8-2. At the other end captain Ross Baker opened with four maidens as he applied pressure by bowling full and straight with movement.

With first change bowler Murray Legg (4-49) also bowling well, Swanage were in trouble as they crawled along to 53-6; Baker bowling his 12 overs unchanged to finish with superb figures of 1-9.

However Swanage through Baczala (39 not out) staged a recovery as the middle order batsman played stubbornly and took advantage of any stray deliveries and with R King (38) and Norman (32) also making useful contributions

Chris Park and Mark Barber both took good catches but in the last five overs both bowling and fielding wilted under pressure as Swanage finished on an unlikely high total of 171-8.

In reply, Beaminster's top order failed miserably with the opening bowlers R King (3-33) and Baczala (4-28) taking 2 wickets each leaving Beaminster on 12-4. Veteran Lloyd relished the challenge and single handed fought back making an excellent 40 and sharing useful partnerships with Baker (11) and Paul Martin (18).

Although Legg (15) and Mark Barber (8) also scored runs at the end, the damage had been done earlier and Beaminster were never in the hunt and were finally dismissed for 129 all out in the 41st over.

DORCHESTER 2ND 140 ALL OUT LOST TO CHRISTCHURCH 183-9 BY 43 RUNS

WINNING the toss Dorchester invited their visitor to bat on what they hoped was a rain affected wicket, but it played much better than expected.

Even so, they bowled and field well to restrict Christchurch to 183-9 in their allotted overs, with Joe Power (3-30) producing his best spell of the year and Crispin Brown grabbing a brace.

Dorchester got off to a bad start in reply and apart from Marcus Evans who pieced together an excellent 40 and joint captain Steve Budd who weighed in with 22 at number seven they were second best.

Joint captain Simon Joslin said: "This is a very competitive league and everybody can beat each other; there's not a lot in it.

"We didn't play to our best today and as a result they won. We were confident after dismissing them at getting the total because we thought it was a 200 wicket, but we got off to a bad start and didn't recover although the tail wagged a little."

"I think anyone of the top five can win it, which includes us, but we may need to up our game a bit more to ensure we have that bit extra."

Division Three

PARLEY 2ND 77-0 BEAT BRIDPORT 74 ALL OUT BY TEN WICKETS

CAPTAIN Mark Smith thinks his side's lack of success is driven by a lack of confidence, and will be ordering his side to relax and go out and enjoy their cricket.

"Our confidence is really low at the moment and the players are not enjoying themselves, and that is showing in the performances.

"It's funny we played a t20 friendly with Beaminster last week and hit 145 in our innings, but don't seem to be able to repeat it when we have 45 overs on a Saturday.

"We're a young side and we should be enjoying our cricket and we are not doing that at the moment. We need to relax and take it in our stride and see if that brings results."

On Saturday only Luke King showed any real application at the crease with a top score of 24. Parley's young opening bowler John Hicks (4-24) was like lightning and soon had Bridport in trouble as they were skittled for just 74 all out. Parley knocked off the total with ease.

CATTISTOCK 244-6 BEAT SHILLINGSTONE 178 ALL OUT BY 66 RUNS
THIS was a shock but well deserved win by Cattistock who easily beat the league leaders who have only dropped one point all season with Joey Baggs starring with a magnificent 137 not out.

On a wet wicket, Cattistock lost their first wicket at 15 but a second wicket partnership of 63 between Joey Baggs and his brother David (19) put them back on track.

Baggs who had been dropped before scoring hit seventeen 4's and four 6's as he dispatched the visitors to all parts of the ground mainly supported by Billy Walbridge (31); the two adding 76 for the sixth wicket.

Bob Edwards was the most successful Shillingstone bowler with 4-46.

Stalbridge never really came to terms with the home bowlers who were well suited to the wicket and at one time were 112-8. Although Edwards (41) and J Peek (36) managed to lift the total it was Richard Fagence (5-38) that did most damage backed up by Bradley Damen (3-36) and Buddy Langford (2-35) as Cattistock secured a midtable position with the win.

MARTINSTOWN 151 ALL OUT BEAT PORTLAND RT 97 ALL OUT BY 54 RUNS

WITH Martinstown captain Nick Quintrell sidelined with a broken thumb, Danny Dancer led the side, and did it by example as his side had an easy win over Portland Red Triangle.

Asked to bat on a wicket affected by overnight rain, they lost openers Henry Lewis (1) and Ed Nichols (4) with just 13 on the board, but Stuart Fry (47) and Sam Kershaw (42) recovered the situation with a stand of 61. Kershaw remained defiant as Dancer added 15 as they recovered to 104-4.

However wickets continued to fall at regular intervals to Simon Proffitt (3-37) and Jon Dixon as they struggled to 151 all out.

However the lack of runs was made up by some very accurate and mean bowling for the home side, and only opener Chris Leake (18) and Callan Laws (24) made any runs of note with most batting for survival.

Dancer took 4-20 with Liam Banfield (4-26) matching his wicket haul; seven of his 12 overs being maidens. Fry was even meaner taking 1-8 from seven overs whilst both Matt Rimmer and Matthew Camp despite not taking a wicket were very economical.

Quintrell said: "I was really pleased with this win over Portland, particularly as we continue to be hampered with injuries and absentees. Stu Fry was promoted in Tommy Adams absence and kerbed his attacking game in compiling 47 and with Sam Kershaw compiled the key stand of the match.

The belated arrival of the sun during tea wasn't ideal from our perspective but in fairness the pitch didn't appear to play too differently or the outfield appreciably speed up. From the start our bowlers were superb making survival never mind scoring runs difficult, and Stu and Liam as first and second change effectively killed the game in the middle overs.

"This was a pleasing victory from our club's perspective in so much as nine of the teams were products of our youth setup, and the average age of the team just under 20. There is going to be a hell of a battle for selection when injuries mend and the full complement of university boys are back in the fold."

Division Five

HENSTRIDGE 121 ALL OUT LOST TO DORCHESTER 3RDS 165-6 BY 44 RUNS

DORCHESTER returned to winning ways with a hard earned 44 run victory away at Henstridge on a very slow low wicket which made batting difficult.

A solid 50 run opening partnership between Jae Miller (36) and Hugh Pryce (21) set a good foundation. However it was the patient innings of 27 not out from Aaron Oliver in 27 overs which enabled the other batsman to score more freely, with a stylish 25 from Jamie Quinten and a hard hitting and fluent 29 not out from younger brother Taylor pleasing to the eye. Pick of the Henstridge bowlers was Steve Swinburn 3-38 off 12 overs.

The hosts' reply started badly losing two wickets within the first five overs, Dominic Royal (1-15) and Oliver (1-10) taking a wicket a piece. A mini recovery was thwarted with a fantastic gully catch by Jamie Quinten off his brother Taylor to remove the dangerous Fryer (11) with the score on 44-3.

Sam Roles then bowled the hard-hitting Travers to leave them on 64-4, and although Swinburn and Underdown added 40 vital runs and pushed the score past the 100 mark, a brilliant piece of athletic fielding by Oliver ran out Swinburn.

The introduction of 16-year-old leg spinner Luke Cotterell (3-18 from six overs) saw Henstridge's reply plummet from 106-5 to 121 all out.

Captain Pete Tucker said: "Having lost the toss and asked to bat first on a slow damp wicket my thoughts turned to last week's batting capitulation and could it happen again.

How wrong could I be; every batsman showed true grit and patience and stepped up to the mark.

"A reshuffle of the team allowed the first appearance of the season not only for Cotterell but also 17-year-old Calum Tucker (0-18 from five overs) bowling left-arm spin. We have lots of other young players champing at the bit to play and they will be given a chance as we go into the second-half of the season"

Division Six

ABBOTSBURY 75-2 BEAT OLD BLANDFORDIANS 74 ALL OUT BY 8 WICKETS.

FOR the second week in a row, Abbottsbury skittled out the opposition for a very low score and completed an easy victory; the whole game being completed before tea.

Winning a vital toss, skipper Simon Pengelly had no hesitation in opting to bowl first on a very damp pitch. Grafton Straker used this to magnificent effect with a vintage display of controlled seam bowling to take an exceptional 9-34, five of his victims being clean bowled.

The only wicket to get away from him fell to perhaps the worst ball of the day from his captain, whose long hop was gently pushed to Nick Wardlaw at silly mid-off.

The Abbottsbury batsmen then soon saw their side home; Wardlaw leading the way with a watchful 44 not out. However nothing can detract from Straker's wonderful bowling figures, a just reward for some straight, accurate bowling.

BRIDPORT 2ND 137-8 BEAT BRANKSOME 2ND 136-9 BY TWO WICKETS

Bridport's victory ebbed and flowed with the home side finally prevailing by two wickets.

Bridport dropped the visiting opener in the slips off the first ball of the innings who went on to make 19, but at 116-9 it looked like this would not be crucial. However the last pair comprising of an experienced batsman who had not played for some time and one who had hardly ever played cricket managed to defy the Bridport attack for the best part of 12 overs in adding 20 runs.

Duane Gay (3-330 was the most successful bowler with Ed Halson picking up 2-11 from eight overs and young Jack Walklett 2-10 from nine over. Debutant Liam Creedon also weighed in with 2-28.

In a case of déjà vu Duane Gay edged the first ball of Bridport's reply to the slips but this time it was taken to leave them 0-1.

However Rod Gay (38) and Toby Hall (45) added 65 for the second wicket to put the host's on the road to a seemingly easy victory but a mid-order collapse from 112-4 to 114-7 left the result on a knife edge, and when Will Meech was dismissed with the score on 123-8 it could have gone either way. But Creedon and Shane Parker hung around long enough to see them over the line.

Captain Jamie Dolman said: "It was a nail-biting finish. I thought to keep them under 140 we had a great chance but it turned out to be a cliff hanger."

Division Seven

CREWKERNE 139-8 BEAT BRADFORD ABBAS 111 ALL OUT BY 28 RUNS

CREWKERNE'S shock result against the leaders helped them ease clear of the bottom of the league.

Division Eight

PORTLAND RT 2ND 168 ALL OUT BEAT MARTINSTOWN 2ND 126 ALL OUT BY 42 RUNS

MARTINSTOWN 2nds could not emulate their first team, going down by 42 runs.

SUNDAY DIVISION FOUR

CHARLTON DOWN 186-7 BEAT

POKESDOWN WILLOWS 116 ALL OUT BY 70 RUNS

LIKE buses, you wait for ages for one, and then two come along together, the same applies to wins for Charlton Down.

After recording their first win of the season last week, they followed it up with an easy victory over Pokesdown Willows.

■ NINE-FOR!: Abbottsbury's Grafton Straker returned superb figures of 9 for 34 in the eight wicket victory over Old Blandfordians.

Free Level 1 coaching for teenagers

KINGSTON Maurward College, near Dorchester is looking to help raise the standard of coaching and playing across Dorset by helping young people onto the first step of their coaching career and getting them qualified at an early age.

The college is working in partnership with Dorset Football Association to offer a free Level 1 qualification in football coaching to 16-18 year olds.

Andy Harris, head coach of Kingston Maurward Colleges Football Academy said: "Being a coach and working my way up the coaching ladder really helped me develop as a player. I believe young players improve their skills far quicker when they start to look at their own performance from a coaching perspective."

Available to all young prospective football coaches, this Level 1 award is the first qualification on the football coaching ladder and suits anyone who is looking for an introduction to coaching grass-roots teams.

Students in further or higher education, studying sports-related coaching qualifications should also pursue this qualification as a valuable addition to their portfolio of coaching skills.

The course is designed to provide learners with an introduction to the practical and theoretical aspects of coaching football. The foundation level of knowledge recognised in this qualification will enable them to develop an understanding of the safe, ethical and effective management and coaching of football.

Those who complete this award will be able to assist other, more qualified coaches in delivering football coaching sessions to players of all ages.

The qualification is based around a seven unit portfolio with practical assessment at the end of the course. First Aid and a Safeguarding Children in Football workshop are also fundamental elements of the award.

The course is free of charge to anyone aged 16 by September 1st 2010 and under 19, and will be held at Kingston Maurward College near Dorchester on three consecutive Sundays, July 10th, 17th and 24th, 10am - 4.30pm.

Ex-pros raise £1000 in charity match

FORMER professional footballers including current Dorchester Town and Weymouth managers Ashley Vickers and Brendon King pulled on their boots at Kingston Maurward College recently to help raise over £1000 for Great Ormond Street Hospital and SCBU at Dorset County Hospital, Dorchester.

The match involving players from Dorset and Somerset was played in memory of 16-year-old football fan Nathan Cross who died from a bacterial infection, and was organised by students studying at Kingston Maurward College for their National Diploma in Football Studies.

There was great support from the public and even the weather stayed dry for the evening which saw Andy Harris' team beat Steve Thompson's team 4-2.

Andy Harris said: "I thoroughly enjoyed the evening; it was nice to see some old team mates and opponents from the past.

"I think the students have exceeded all expectations in the organisation of the event and lots of credit to their tutor Sharon Cornick who I know has worked tirelessly behind the scenes to help them.

"It would be nice if we can make this an annual event for charity."

Unbeaten Holly lands fourth County title

HOLLY Butt sprinted to her fourth consecutive Dorset County 100m title at King's Park, Bournemouth recently, and remains unbeaten in the county since Year 7.

The diminutive Sir John Colfox School sprinter who won the Inter Girls group was one of 24 from the school that represented West Dorset in the county championships, five of whom, including Butt, will now represent the county at the South West Schools Championship at Exeter.

The other four are Ali Tuck who won the Senior Boys Discus, Ryan Smith who was runner-up in the Junior Discus, Junior Boys 800m champion Rhys Kirkpatrick and Will Bowen-Ashwin who won the Junior Boys Hammer.

The results once again enhance the school's reputation for producing top athletes.

Endurance victory for Dace

AFTER five years of riding Endurance Woodroffe School sixth form pupil Dace Saunders, part of the British U21 squad, competed in her first international ride at Nottingham recently.

Endurance is not a widely known sport in Great Britain, it involves riding distances up to 160km in a day with intermittent vet gates to ensure the horse is fit and ready to continue.

However next year the Endurance World Championships are being held in Great Britain in conjunction with the Olympics which it is hoped will raise awareness of this demanding sport.

Competing on Ballota (Lottie) a pure bred Arabian, Dace explained: "I had entered the 90km FEI class and had spent the previous months training Lottie, this training seemed to pay off as before the first vet gate we had already acquired a lead of 15 minutes. The ride ended in success with a win, and an immense feeling of pride in Lottie."

"This success gave me confidence for the second ride of the year at Euston Park near Thetford.

"This ride is notably one of the most prestigious in Europe, the highlight being the presence of The Royal Family of the United Arab Emirates competing in the event.

The 80km ride at Euston Park also included the British Young Rider Championships in which riders under 21 compete in to claim the title for the year.

"I have to say this ride was the most nerve racking and exciting I have ever done in my years of doing endurance."

Alex Tennant, a young rider from Wales, and Dace were lapping each other for the duration of the ride. It came to the last loop and Alex got out of the venue five minutes ahead.

"At this point Dace's hopes of winning were fading, as to catch up five minutes on a 19 kilometre loop is not easily done.

"Lottie really showed her fitness and competitiveness and within 30 minutes we had caught up, and with no more than 10 kilometres till the finish line we made a decision to ride together until a mile to the finish line where we would then race in, making it a fair end to a fair ride" continued Dace.

"My stomach was in my mouth as we approached the mile mark both horses galloped flat out to the finish line, it really was amazing the spirit and energy they found after 80km to exuberate this kind of energy which saw Lottie came over the finish line first.

"The overwhelming feeling of pride I felt really was not expressible in words.

"After congratulating Alex on a fair race, we went on to pass our final vet inspection, claiming the title of British Young Rider Champion 2011.

"There are so many people I have to thank for helping me to make the beginning of the year such a success.

"I am now preparing for the 120km ride at Euston Park on the July 11th and I hope I can bring more success to the area."

◆ ENDURANCE WINNERS: Dace Saunders and Lottie.

New era for Weymouth ladies rugby Dorchester Under 13s

WEYMOUTH Rugby Football Club are looking to raise the profile of women's rugby and building for the future by introducing Beach Tag Rugby during the summer months.

The idea is to encourage females of all ages to learn the sport by receiving coaching from qualified coaches, play matches and have fun on the beach.

Nathan Parker, Director of Female Rugby said: "This is a new era for Weymouth Rugby Club, and we are looking to build for the future. It is our intention to raise the profile of female rugby by inviting females of all ages to learn more about the game through beach tag rugby which is a great introduction to the sport; in the three weeks since we began numbers have increased and interest has gained momentum.

It is the club's intention that come September they will have built and developed four teams; U13s, U15s U18s and Ladies.

He added: "There are four things people don't realise about rugby in general; it builds self confidence; it improves self esteem; it creates lifelong friendships and any shape or size can play.

"Weymouth RFC needs you! Why not try beach tag rugby?"

Anyone wishing to try should go along on Wednesday evenings between 6.30pm and 8pm opposite the Alexandra Gardens on the beach.

More info can be obtained by calling Nathan on 07818055385 or by email womenandgirlsrugby@weymouthrfc.org.

Face from the past

EX-YEOVIL Town, Bridport, Beaminster and Lyme Regis goalkeeper Grant Northover donned the whites for Exmouth 3rds at Axminster last weekend writes Howard Larcombe.

Northover, widely regarded as one of the best goalkeepers to have been produced in the area, couldn't prevent his side from slipping to a 26-run defeat despite taking 5 for 29 and cracking a beligerant 29.

BOB BUCKLER HORSE RACING

Sweeney magic sees Cullahill to victory

NATHAN Sweeney was the toast of Henley last week when his driving finish saw Cullahill continue Bob Buckler's impressive record at the start of the new jumping season.

Boxed in five fences from home in the 3 mile 1m furlong Abaca Sleep System Supporting Prince's Trust Handicap Chase at Ffos Las last Thursday, it looked as if the nine-year-old was going to miss out on his recent impressive form.

However Sweeney stayed calm and between the long run to the fourth from last fence worked his way back to the outside of the pack before swooping inside the last 150 yards to snatch victory from the well fancied Quattrocentro by ½ length.

It was in fact the Peter Bowen trained horse ridden by Jamie Moore that had come quickly on the outside of Cullahill before cutting in that forced Sweeney to move over.

Whether it was a tactic to hamper his preferred racing line or not, it worked, and Sweeney found himself against the rails with nowhere to go.

However he got his revenge as once back in clear space his charge picked up the pace and with Quattrocentro almost running on the spot towards the finish he galloped on to take the prize of £5,600.

"It was a super run by Cullahill and an equally impressive ride by Nathan," declared Buckler.

"The horse prefers to run wide and have daylight in front of him, and when he was boxed in it was difficult to see him winning and at that point he was 700-1 with the bookies to win, but Nathan stayed calm and rode him to perfection.

"Quattrocentro's connections were quite certain before the race that their horse was going to win."

Cullahill who went off the 11/4 favourite has now run five times in a month, winning twice and finishing second and third twice in the others.

This gives his owner Nick Elliott the top strike rate of the new season with five wins and four places, and puts Buckler 32nd in the top trainers list with almost £20,000 and also the top strike trainer with 31 per cent.

The win also made Sweeney the top NH jockey of the season on strike rates, with seven wins and seven placings in his 20 rides to date.

The win was Buckler's 12th top three finish out of 13 runners this season.

Outcome in the balance

AARON Williams fell three runs short of his second MCCA (Western Division) Championship century of the season as Dorset county cricketers set hosts Wiltshire a target of 288 for victory at Devizes yesterday.

The result was in the balance at lunch with Wiltshire on 82 for 2 after 24 overs.

Simkin looking to Dickenson to end drought

DORCHESTER Town assistant manager Phil Simkin believes that new signing Ben Dickenson could be the player to unlock the goalscoring problem that blighted the Magpies chances last season.

Dickenson was the club's first close season signing back in May, attributed largely to an intensive scouting campaign by Simkin who fought off the attention of several other clubs for his signature.

The Christchurch teenager and his family were so impressed by how Ashley Vickers right-hand man handled the situation and sold the club to them that they had no hesitation in signing, and Simkin thinks he will repay them by scoring a lot of goals.

"Ben is a real star of the future. He has a wonderful attitude and is big and strong, and is very, very quick for a lad of his size. There is no answer to speed, and I think he will score a lot of goals.

"Whether that will be seen immediately of course depends on how well he settles in to the system, and it may take some time, but I tell you he is one for the long term.

Dorchester moved quickly at the end of the season to not only secure 18-year-old Dickenson, but they also completed the signing of experienced midfielder Ashley Nicholls and with virtually everyone else tied up on contracts they can expect a better season.

"There was a lot of hard work

BY STUART BROOM

done at the end of the season to secure the players here at The Avenue as well as signing Ben and Ashley, and to be fair we did quite well last season and there was not too much wrong with us except for putting the ball in the net."

Pre-season training starts on Saturday and the only outstanding query is whether Chris Flood will accept new terms.

"We have made Chris an offer but at the moment he has not made a decision. We have moved a bit closer but there are still one or two pints that need to be agreed, but we are hopeful that he will stay."

Former Magpie Simon Evans

looks like he will be returning to The Avenue after leaving to join Rushden & Diamonds in January who have been relegated from the Blue Square Conference for financial irregularities.

"Simon is still under contract at Rushden, but we are talking with the club, and there is a strong possibility that he could be returning."

Simkin is expecting a lot of triallists at training on Saturday.

"There are an awful lot of Football League players looking for clubs this summer; there has been a massive clear out, and we will obviously be running our eye over them in the hope of finding one or two gems."

One player who will be there is Bridport striker Ryan Dovell who has decided to give himself one more chance of playing in higher football.

The 30-year-old scored 20 times for the Bees last season in helping gain Bridport promotion to the Toolstation Western League Premier League, and despite telling manager Trevor Senior he was staying has decided to try his luck with the Magpies in an effort to play at the highest level possible.

Simkin said: "I know Ryan well having worked with him both here before and at Hamworthy United. He's a useful player who can play in a multitude of positions.

"He approached us and asked if he could come to pre-season training, and we will of course be checking him out and hope that he is successful."

■ GIVING IT A GO: Ryan Dovell is heading to Dorchester from Bridport.
